

MAWAH EUPHEMIA BILINYI (RM)

Jema-Kintampo South, Ghana | euphemia.johnny1@gmail.com | +233 24 353 7350 |

Professional Summary

Dedicated and highly experienced midwife with over 10 years of service in maternal and newborn health. Renowned for introducing innovative practices in antenatal care, labor management, and postpartum support, leading to measurable improvements in maternal outcomes. Passionate about community outreach, education, and using technology to drive quality, accessibility, and efficiency in midwifery services. A strong advocate for safe motherhood and evidence-based practice.

Licensure

- Registered Nurse (Nursing and Midwifery Council Ghana) – 2013 to Current
- Community Health Nursing – 2004 to 2012

Skills

Hard/ Clinical Skills

- Skilled Birth Attendance
- Emergency Obstetric Care (EmONC)
- Antenatal & Postnatal Care
- Use of Partograph
- Neonatal Resuscitation
- Child welfare activities
- Child immunization & Family planning

Soft Skills

- Empathy & Compassion
- Teamwork & Collaboration
- Attention to Detail
- Leadership
- Confidentiality & Professional Ethics

Professional Experience

Staff midwife /Senior midwifery Officer

Kintampo South District Hospital – Jema, Kintampo

Dec.2014 – To Date

- Designed and implemented maternal triage innovations, reducing delays in care.
- Coordinated a multidisciplinary team to review and update delivery room protocols.
- Mentored new midwives in evidence-based delivery techniques and respectful maternity care.
- Organized district-level maternal mortality review forums.
- Facilitated training modules on maternal emergencies, infection control, and innovation in healthcare.
- Supervised student-led maternal health projects and participated in curriculum innovation.
- Developed simulation-based training tools for students on labour management.
- Initiated and managed a successful community maternal support group.
- Introduced home-based postpartum visits.
- Achieved a 60% reduction in maternal anaemia through community nutrition education.

Community Health Nurse

Dadiasoaba Health Center

Dec. 2005 - Nov.2014

- Delivered maternal and child health services, including antenatal care, postnatal follow-ups, immunizations, and family planning.
- Conducted community outreach and home visits to assess health needs and promote access to care among underserved populations.
- Led health education sessions on nutrition, hygiene, communicable diseases, reproductive health, and sanitation.

Community Health Nurse

Kenyasi Health Center

Feb 2005 - Nov 2005

- Supported family planning services, offering counseling and administering contraceptive methods.
- Participated in disease surveillance and outbreak response, including contact tracing, treatment follow-up, and public health reporting.
- Promoted environmental health practices through education on clean water usage, proper waste disposal, and household sanitation.

Education

Bachelor of Science in Midwifery

University for Development Studies - Tamale, Ghana

2019 – 2022

Diploma in Midwifery

Goaso Nurses and Midwifery Training School

2010 to 2012

Community Health Nursing

Ho community Health Nursing Training School

2002 to 2004

Professional Associations

Nursing and Midwifery Council Ghana (NMC) – 2004 till date

Ghana Registered Nurses and Midwives Association (GRNMA) - 2008 till Date

ANC Defaulter Tracing and Prevention System – Kintampo South District Hospital, Jema - 2023

Languages

English (Advanced), Konkomba, Twi

References

Available upon request