

CURRICULUM VITAE

Name: Dakurugu Mahamadu

Date of birth: 20th may 1982

Gender: male

Nationality: Ghanaian

Institution

Upper East Regional Hospital

Upper East Region

Bolgatanga, Ghana

Status: Paediatric Nurse

Education

1. BSc nursing, University for Development studies (2020-2022)
2. Paediatric nursing, Ghana College of Nurses and Midwives, (2016 – 2017)
3. Diploma in general nursing, Bolgatanga nurses training college (2007 – 2010)

Membership of professional associations:

1. Member of Ghana registered nurses and midwives' association
2. Member, Ghana College of nurses and midwives

Team membership

- October 2019 a team member for a day working visit to Bongo District Hospital to assess their newly established new born care unit and make recommendation for intervention by the Regional Health Directorate

Committee membership

- A vetting committee member to determine qualified nominees for Upper East regional GRNMA executive positions 2024.
- I was Part of a committee which investigated medications negligent that resulted to complication in paediatric patient in 2023 at Regional hospital Bolga.
- July, 2019. I was part of a three-member committee assigned by the Upper East Regional Health Directorate for a three-day working visit to assess, identify the cause of high rate of both still birth and neonatal deaths in the new born care unit of Bawku Presby Hospital and the possible solutions.
- 2019- Chairman of a seven-member committee for activities marking the 2019 world prematurity day celebration by the Upper East Regional Hospital new born care unit

Compassionate, Dedicated and Service Driven nurse

- Over 10 year's expertise in nursing, including experiences as a staff nurse, shift in-charge, ward in-charge and clinical preceptor. Emphasis on team building, setting strategic direction and organizational change management. I am naturally quality conscious and always adhere to safety and legislative system and processes. Diligent advocate providing a voice for patients and ensuring their well-being.

Key skills

- Proven customer service skills and ability to develop professional relationship
- Vast practical/clinical nursing knowledge
- Highly regarded preceptor, coach, motivator and developer of staff
- Outstanding supervision, administration, organizational and coordination skills
- Proven positive attitude to change
- Knowledge of planning, organizing and implementation
- Ability to identify new opportunities and questioning old assumptions
- High level of communication, interpersonal, negotiation and presentation skills
- Knowledge of team building and engaging others
- High level of strength in making tough decisions

Additional work experience

- A practical examiner for nurses and midwifery council, Bolgatanga nursing training school, Zuarungu Nursing Training School and Bolgatanga midwifery Training School since 2017.
- Data collection officer in a study entitled ‘medication administration errors (MAE) among paediatric in-patients in the Upper Est Regional Hospital’ and adult in-patients as well.

Position held

- In-charge of monitoring and supervision(preceptor) for national service personnel and students on clinical in the new born care unit (RHB), 2019 to 2020
- In-charge of training for neonatal resuscitation management in the new born care unit (RHB), 2018 to 2020
- Assistant nurse in-charge, Newborn care unit (RHB), 2018
- Substantive nurse in-charge paediatric ward (RHB) 2021
- The current Regional chairman, Paediatric Nurses Society-Ghana
- Currently Bolga Municipal Chairman of Ghana Registered Nurses and Midwives Association
- Bolga Municipal secretary for Ghana Registered Nurses and Midwives Association 2020 to 2024
- The current assistant unit head for paediatric surgical ward

THANK YOU.

REFREE CONTACT

1 Francis Wuni: 0207561038

2 Thomas Lanbong: 0242214744